CONCORDIA COLLEGE
PORTLAND, OREGON

DEDICATION

To

Professor F. W. J. Sylwester,

... who at three score and ten has reached the academic Jordan, to whom the learning process was ever high adventure, and to whom sturdy erudition was of the essence of honest teaching, the Class of 1951 feels honored to pay true tribute.

In the vista of Concordia's story, the figure of this rugged school-man stands out in bold relief. As the winged hours soar on, and evening draws nigh through the deepening twilight, may the prayer of Professor Sylwester's many friends be an abiding fact:

"At evening time it shall be light." Zechariah 14:7.

Our United Efforts

Nearing completion on the bank of the East River in New York City looms the imposing new United Nations structure. Already it has become a symbol of hope to those nations striving for world peace.

As you endeavor to build your life's career, your prime objective—the one toward which all your talents and training is being geared at CONCORDIA COLLEGE—is to help make the world one through faith in Christ. The divine imperative that rests on us all is to point men to that "peace which passeth all understanding."

Your Synod-owned publishing house, one of the largest in the world devoted exclusively to religious publishing, is equipped to supply you with the modern tools and practical aids that will help make your personal part in the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom more easy and more effective.

Our unceasing ministry of print, coupled with your multiplied use of these Christ-centered materials, is a noble, soul-satisfying work, for our cooperative labors reach into the lives of countless thousands around the globe with the precious message that leads men to the one Unifier and Source of lasting hope and peace.

Our united efforts cannot and will not fail.

(The next time you are in St. Louis be sure to take an interesting, guided tour of your official publishing house.)
